

2004 RRRRC Living Towns Remington Planning Workshop

“Rediscovering Remington’s History along the Rappahannock River”

Wednesday, July 28, 2004

St. Luke’s Episcopal Church- Parish Hall

Agenda

Morning Session

8:30 Registration and Coffee

9:00 Welcome and Introductions – Mark Van de Water, Exec. Director, Rappahannock-Rapidan Regional Commission
Gerald Billingsley, Mayor, Town of Remington
Chester Stribling, Supervisor, Fauquier County- Lee District

9:10 Main Street Identity and Design

Moderator: Richard Calderon, Senior Planner, Fauquier County Dept. of Planning & Community Development

A. Inventory of Assets

Maral Kalbian, Architectural Historian

B. Preservation Tax Credits

David Edwards, Director, Virginia Department of Historic Resources Winchester Region

C. Community Visioning and Charrettes

Phoebe Kilby, President, Sympoetica

10:25 Break

10:35 Economic Development & Infrastructure

Moderator: Scott Bruggeman, Town Council Member, Town of Remington

A. Flood Map Update Process

Corey Garyotis, National Flood Insurance Program Coordinator, VA Department of Conservation and Recreation

B. Boundary Adjustments in the State of Virginia

Ted McCormack, Associate Director, Commission on Local Government

C. Leveraging Funds

Tim Small, Project Manager, Town of Scottsville Canal Basin Square

11:50 Lunch

Provided by Remington United Methodist Church Women

12:35 Town of Remington Walking Tour

Afternoon Session

1:45 Rappahannock River History and Access

Moderator: Jeffrey Walker, Deputy Director, Rappahannock-Rapidan Regional Commission

A. Rappahannock River/Chesapeake Bay Gateway Proposal

Tom Van Arsdall, Past Chair, Friends of the Rappahannock

B. Fluvanna Heritage and Rivanna River Water Trails

Marvin Moss, President, Fluvanna Heritage Trail Foundation

C. Trail Building and Volunteer Recruitment

Red Pulliam, Vice President and Volunteer Coordinator, Fluvanna Heritage Trail Foundation

D. Scottsville River Festivals and Canal Basin Square

John Bowers, Project Manager, Town of Scottsville Canal Basin Square

3:15 Wrap-Up –

Lydia Edwards, President, Southern Fauquier Business Owners Association

3:30 Reception at The Inn at Kelly’s Ford- Ripley Hall